Be Encouraged

...HE IS GOD!

Beloved, we live in a time in which the glorification of ourselves is often greater than our glorification of God. Even in our music, teaching, preaching, writings, and discussions, a great deal of time is spent affirming who God says we are—how He views us. Is there anything wrong with this? ABSOLUTELY NOT! Can we do it too much? ABSOLUTELY.

There is no doubt that as we look around today we see the affects in people around us who do not see themselves within the loving and purposed way that God has created each of us. They see themselves through the eyes of this world and the dysfunctional comparisons it creates. Precious and disheartened souls listen to the father of lies and fall under his sway. It is good for us to know how highly we are viewed in our Father's eyes.

But let me say this...even in the course of our godly affirmation (much needed), that there is a greater affirmation and anchor upon which to cling, and that is found in WHO GOD SAYS, HE IS! Our hope and security is never found in who we believe ourselves to be, or even in who He says we are, as much as it is found solely in Him. And He is "I AM" – The Great I AM!

Blessings, Pastor Kevin
