Be Encouraged

...HE FAITHFULLY LEADS THE FAITHFUL!

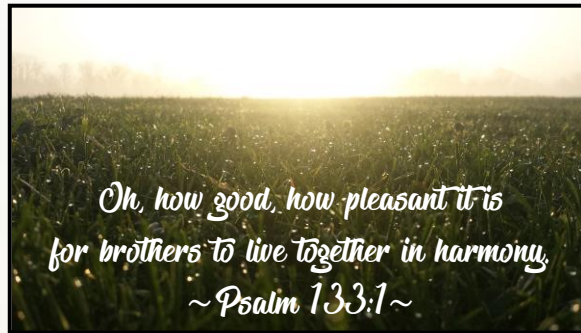

I don't know what your experience is, but the further that I walk with Him the greater His faithfulness seems to be. You would think after a while, we would cease to be amazed at the things He does, right?

NEVER! The awe and wonder never gets old—His hand never becomes commonplace to those who walk in His ways. This week is already shaping up to be a week in which we will see God do, in some fashion, above and beyond what we could ever think or imagine.

I don't know all that He is doing, but I know that He loves His children—His family. And there is nothing that blesses our Father more, than to see His children delighting in Him and enjoying Who He is.

By-the-way...wasn't it just like God to have given us the beautiful breeze for our outdoor worship on Sunday morning! I want to say a huge "THANK YOU" to all who helped prepare food, set up tables and chairs, sound equipment, and the work it took to make it all a wonderful morning. May your week be blessed walking in unity with Jesus. And to those who may be traveling, may our God give you traveling mercies!

BLESSINGS, Pastor Kevin
