Be Encouraged

...AND BE THANKFUL IN ALL CIRCUMSTANCES!

Difficult? You bet. Impossible? Of course—that is, if we are expecting to “be thankful” on our own accord. In our time together this past Sunday, I was reminded once again of how God’s Gift to us—the Holy Spirit, works in every way in our lives making the humanly impossible—possible through Him.

I don’t need to tell you that we live in challenging and precarious times. News, social media, work and play, schools, neighborhoods, and even at times, our own families can be inundated with negativity and darkness. Just as Jesus prayed for His original disciples, the same holds true for us—He doesn’t take us out of this world, and He doesn’t revoke the mandate upon our lives to show forth His character, but he does help us exponentially. You and I have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us be like Jesus. May the Spirit be great in you and through you this week!

BLESSINGS, Pastor Kevin
